Weekly Review – 26th Nov -by Mark Bunn

Hertfordshire FA Intermediate Cup Third Round

SOCA, the league's last remaining team in this competition made it through to the quarter-finals after a 3-0 away win over St Ippolyts FC Rangers.

After some tough opening exchanges, SOCA opening the scoring thanks to Michael Coffey penalty which was awarded after George Coffey had been brought down in the area. Just before half-time the lead was doubled when Jordan Austin laid the ball off to George Coffey who dribbled past two players defenders before laying the ball off to Stevie Dowling who slotted home from close range. In the second half the victory was sealed thanks to a long-range effort from Jake Howell. They will face the winners of the tie between Saints FC and Ashwell on February 18th.

Denis Jackson Intermediate Cup First Round

The all second division tie between Watford Youth Sports and West Herts saw the home side run out 4-2 winners. The home side went ahead after twenty thanks to a well worked goal. Louis Taverner cut in from the left wing, passing to Louis Muncie who chipped the ball over the two central defenders for Oliver Frost to volley home from twelve yards. West Herts soon drew level thanks to a penalty converted by Declan O'Gorman. Watford soon restored the lead thanks to a penalty of their own which was slotted home by Oliver Frost. Frost then within two minutes completed his hattrick after he was once again set up Louis Taverner and Muncie. In the second half, west Herts pulled themselves back into the game when Dylan Cayton curled in an effort from twenty yards out, and soon after they struck the post, but the win was sealed when Louis Muncie when he smashed home a rebound in off the stanchion from ten yards.

Third division Carpenders Park Royals caused a minor upset when they defeated the team currently bottom of the division above them, Abbots Wanderers 2-0. Robert Da Silva and Liam Coles with the goals.

Premier Division

Leaders North Watford defeated Abbots Langley Club 2-0 thanks to goals from Lee Armit and Ashley Lewis.

Second placed Cassiobury Rangers missed the chance to keep level on points with them as they were held 2-2 by Forza Watford. Rangers saw the result as two points lost as they twice lost the lead. Rangers went ahead early on when a ball was played in to Taylor Osunsedo's feet by Sam Mortimer, who held up well on the edge of the box and played a reverse pass in behind the back line, which was picked up by Alexi Andreas, who timed his run perfectly and slotted past the keeper from fifteen yards. Forza Watford drew level following a penalty which was first saved by the rebound was put away. In the second half when Jayden Chamberlain played well into Taylor Osunsedo's feet with his back to goal 30 yards out who then killed the ball in mid air and spun the ball over a defender to lash a shot home into the top right-hand corner, but it was not enough to win the game when Forza scored following a corner.

Division One

Bottom placed Batchworth gained a fourth point of the season when they battled back from 2-0 to draw 2-2 against leaders Watford Sports. Taylor Kemp gave Sports the lead after well worked link up play with Kyle Davis. In the second half Kemp again was on target when he drilled the ball home, and the leaders looked on course for all three points, but the home side despite being bottom of the league fought back after a brave change in formation to a more attacking one, and it paid off when Dylan Rose scored at the back post, and then his header hit a defender and go into the net for an own goal for the equaliser.

WATFORD SUNDAY FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The two points dropped by Watford Sports mean The Cross are now in second place three points behind the leaders with a game in hand as they easily swept aside Langleybury 5-0. Theo Soares opened the scoring with a composed finish, and then just before the break he saw his shot turned past his own keeper by a Langleybury defender. Early in the second Soares netted his second goal of the game before Raphael Wiredu rounded the keeper to slot home from close range. He then turned provider with five minutes left to go to put through Stephani Grimes-Ford to curl the ball around the keeper.

Division Two

Dunnings Bar won the bragging rights in the St Albans Road bar derby as they ran out 3-1 winners against Dome Bar. Harley Wilson scored a double alongside a goal from Hamish Muir. Jay Haynes netted the Dome Bar reply.

Sparta Phoenix took advantage of Everett Rovers week off to cut the gap at the top of the table to just two points as they edged past Inter 3-2. Matt Lewis, Floyd Thompson and Philippe Clarke with the vital goals, Gabriel Casagrande and Sam Conway scored for the visitors.

St Joseph's Reserves beat Hertfordshire Athletic 3-1, who could well be considered the most inconsistent team in the whole of the leagues four divisions as they failed to build on last weeks 7-0 win. Jack McLaughlin scored for Athletic, but Joes reserves replied with goals from a double from Mitchell Tearle and one from Ben Cowen.

Division Three

Twenty-seven goals were scored in the five games in the bottom division. Leaders Woodside Reserves made it nine wins from nine as they beat Abbots Athletic 5-0, with five different goal scorers, Alex More, Lui Ptiuk, Elliott Smith, Joe McCarthy and Tyrone Brandy.

FC Railway are still on their tail, three points behind as they gained a eighth win out of nine, as they overcame Everett Rovers Reserves 4-0, Danny Wallis with a double and a goal each for Arran Bhad, and Charlie Fisher. In third place, but some five points behind Railway, although they do have a game in hand are Chorleywood Club AFC who came through a seven-goal thriller 4-3 against Bricket Wood Acorns. Joe Berzins, Andy Parslow, George Blanks, and Rob Barron with the home sides goals, with Conrad Holland, Jack Micklewright and Finley Evans on target for Acorns.

Surely Wood beat Mill Hill Village 3-2, Kyle Barnett, Darius Murray and Jack Burrell all scoring, with Aidan Woods getting the two Mill Hill goals.

AFC Watford's 6-0 win over PTH United has pushed them up into fourth place, David Agbeni was the star performer for AFC as he struck four times, supported by a goal each for Jordan Stagg and Connor Judge.
